Today’s gospel gives us two proofs of the power and the infinite mercy of our Savior Jesus Christ. The primary purpose of Jesus’ miracles was proving that he was the promised Messiah, but there was also other purpose of the miracles — help the people suffering spiritually and physically. Jesus didn’t work miracles for the purpose of astonishing people or to encourage gossip about him. All the people who were helped by Jesus’ miracles had one thing in common — they were motivated by trust in his mercy and power. The miracles of Jesus proved that he was what he said to be — the Son of God and the long expected Savior; and also through the miracles Jesus wanted to prove his understanding and sympathy for the suffering humanity.

Has the world changed much in the twenty first century? How many millions of people ignore Christ and his Gospel today, people who are too practical, too down-to-earth to waste time on things as their eternal salvation. How many people are spiritually sick and dying but who have no faith, humility, confidence like Jairus, to come to Jesus and ask him to cure?

“Lord, if only you will you can make me clean”. If they could, like the suffering woman in today’s Gospel, break through the attitudes of thinking, worldly interests and touch Jesus’ cloth and be healed. Also, let us think about our sisters and brothers in Christ, who are so busy with worldly occupations and pleasures that they cannot find time to come and listen to Jesus’ message.

On July 4, we will celebrate our Independence Day. In addition to barbecues and family gatherings, it is a day during which we reflect on freedom and its responsibilities. We remember the cost of the Revolutionary War and the courage of the Patriots that risked so much for an ideal and a dream. The victory of the Revolutionary War and the break from England were only first steps in a “serious enterprise” that ended with a Union, Constitution, Branches of Government and division of powers. We borrowed much from our “Mother Country” but also differentiated ourselves in very important ways. Without Monarchy or Parliament, the architects of our “Holy Experiment” placed much hope and responsibility upon the “common man” and upon a vision of a true democracy. Representative democracy has an inner optimism and commitment that human beings are free, responsible and capable of self-governance. The “freedom from” England was understood as a “freedom for” the creation of an entirely new way of governance and use of power and authority for the common good.

Today it is still very important that we remain committed to our Nation’s foundational goals and purposes. We have a “freedom from” many types of tyrants and abuses but we have not freed ourselves from racism, poverty, hostility toward immigrants and abuses against life such as war, abortion, capital punishment. Nor have we found our place as a leader of the free world without a dependence, however reluctantly, upon war and violence. We still have much work to do in order to use our “Freedom for” in the best way. As we continue to struggle with recession, economic fears and uncertainty, we are reminded that even as powerful of a country as the United States cannot unilaterally control the fate of an enmeshed and interdependent world.

So as People of Faith and of the Covenant, we pray that God will bless us with wisdom and grace, courage and perseverance. We pray for a Nation and a government that will respect our inalienable rights especially our right to religious freedom. We strive to create a common good and a set of societal arrangements that are not hostile toward religious faith and its place in national life. The Bill of Rights did not intend to build walls between faith and democracy but to respect the importance and spheres of activity of both. Never in the history of our country has government tried to define the identity, mission, ministries and inner activities of any faith. That was the way of the "Mother Country and Her Established Church." that we left behind in England. Our long standing Tradition of respect and religious toleration must continue to be operative and lived out. Our country’s “freedom from” should always be “freedom for” justice, equality under the law and the furtherance of the common good. As Catholic Christians, as “Faithful Citizens” this Fourth of July requires that we exercise our patriotism in an assertive and effective way so as to protect that which is most dear to us: our values, our ministries, our consciences, the very heart and soul of our faith. In order to be responsible citizens, we need to educate ourselves about the realities that we face as a Nation, the positions of political candidates, the key issues and national priorities. We need to practice the “art of discernment” as we connect in prayer our beliefs and values, our Tradition and Scripture, our moral and ethical positions. Most importantly, we must exercise our right to vote and to make our voices heard. As is often stated as a proverb, “those who are apathetic and uninvolved deserve the government they are subjected to”. Remember the Teaching of Jesus: “Render unto Caesar what is Caesar’s and unto God what belongs to God”.

Our Diocesan Service Appeal A Success!

On behalf of all who will benefit from this year’s Diocesan Services Appeal, I would like to thank all of our parishioners who pledged as of July 1, over $400,000. While unofficially closing down this appeal, we will certainly welcome any additional donations that will help us pay for our Church Bathrooms Renovation Project. May God Bless all for this generous Parish response.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Make Room for Jesus this Holiday!

Travel plans abound. Expectations are high. But, roads are crowded, airports packed, lines are long. Road rage festers; tempers flair, short-fuses ignite. What to do? Take a deep breath; say a short prayer. “Jesus give me patience.” “Jesus protect us.” “Jesus help me.” No matter where you are, in traffic, out of gas, lost, harried by kids, ready to go ballistic; Jesus is with you always. This holiday we celebrate our many freedoms. Among them are the freedom to pray or worship, freedom to help others, freedom to attend and support our church and school. These gifts from God are priceless. As good Stewards protect them! So, this holiday remember, prayer is your 911 to Jesus for everything. And He’s on-call 24/7. God Bless!

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

BISHOPS RENEW PLEA TO CONGRESS AND ADMINISTRATION TO REPAIR AFFORDABLE CARE ACT

WASHINGTON. Today the United States Supreme Court issued a decision upholding as a tax the provision of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) that requires individuals to purchase a health plan—the so-called “individual mandate.”

For nearly a century, the Catholic bishops of the United States have been and continue to be consistent advocates for comprehensive health care reform to ensure access to life-affirming health care for all, especially the poorest and the most vulnerable. Although the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) did not participate in these cases and took no position on the specific questions presented to the Court, USCCB’s position on health care reform generally and on ACA particularly is a matter of public record. The bishops ultimately opposed final passage of ACA for several reasons.

First, ACA allows use of federal funds to pay for elective abortions and for plans that cover such abortions, contradicting longstanding federal policy. The risk we identified in this area has already materialized, particularly in the initial approval by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) of “high risk” insurance pools that would have covered abortion.

Second, the Act fails to include necessary language to provide essential conscience protection, both within and beyond the abortion context. We have provided extensive analyses of ACA’s defects with respect to both abortion and conscience. The lack of statutory conscience protections applicable to ACA’s new mandates has been illustrated in dramatic fashion by HHS’s “preventive services” mandate, which forces religious and other employers to cover sterilization and contraception, including abortifacient drugs.

Third, ACA fails to treat immigrant workers and their families fairly. ACA leaves them worse off by not allowing them to purchase health coverage in the new exchanges created under the law, even if they use their own money. This undermines the Act’s stated goal of promoting access to basic life-affirming health care for everyone, especially for those most in need.

Following enactment of ACA, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has not joined in efforts to repeal the law in its entirety, and we do not do so today. The decision of the Supreme Court neither diminishes the moral imperative to ensure decent health care for all, nor eliminates the need to correct the fundamental flaws described above. We therefore continue to urge Congress to pass, and the Administration to sign, legislation to fix those flaws.

VOTE TO PROTECT RELIGIOUS FREEDOM
The faithful of the Diocese of Palm Beach and Floridians have an opportunity this November to take direct action towards the protection of religious freedom by voting “yes” on both Amendments 6 and 8. Amendment 6 protects taxpayers from funding services against their conscience by prohibiting public funds for abortion and requires parents to give their consent in order for their child to obtain an abortion. By preserving time-honored public-private partnerships, Amendment 8 eliminates discrimination against churches and religious organizations that provide social services. It provides that neither the government nor any agent of the government may deny to any individual or entity the benefits of any program, funding, or other support on the basis of religious identity and belief. For more information on these amendments, please visit the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops at www.flaccb.org. If you want to sign up for advocacy and action alerts, look at the Take Action section of the site and click on Join The Network and/or Grassroots Action Center. Information can also be found on the diocesan website www.diocesepb.org

XIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Ciclo B
La muerte y la vida
San Marcos 5, 21-24. 35a-43

Dice Jesús a Jairo: No ha muerto, sino que duerme. «Estaba muerta para los hombres, que no podían despertarla; para Dios, dormía, porque su alma vivía sometida al poder divino, y la carne descansaba para la resurrección. No es la muerte corporal un mal absoluto. «No olvides, hijo, que el dormir, porque su alma vivía sometida al poder divino, y la carne descansaba para la resurrección.»

Dicen los Santos Padres: “Muerte del alma es no tener a Dios”. Cuando el hombre muere, pierde la vida eterna, pierde el bien natural del universo entero” (SANTO TOMÁS).

El pecado no solo perjudica a quien lo comete: también daña a la familia, a los amigos, a toda la Iglesia, y «se puede hablar de una comunión en el pecado, por el que un alma se abaja por el pecado abaja consigo a la Iglesia y, en cierto modo, al mundo entero». En otras palabras, no existe pecado alguno, aun el más íntimo y secreto, el más estrictamente individual, que afecte exclusivamente a aquel que lo comete. Todo pecado repercute, con mayor o menor intensidad, con mayor o menor daño, en todo el conjunto espiritual y en toda la familia humana» (JUAN PABLO II).

Pidamos a la Virgen nuestra Madre que nos otorgue el don de apreciar, por encima de todos los bienes humanos, incluso de la misma vida corporal, la vida del alma, y que nos haga reaccionar con contrición verdadera ante las flaquezas y errores.

TRADUCCION DEL MENSAJE DE NUESTRO PASTOR, MONSEÑOR MICHAEL D. MCGRAW:
LA DECLARACION DE LA INDEPENDENCIA Y NUESTRA CONSTITUCION: “LIBERTAD DE QUIÉN” Y “LIBERTAD PARA QUÉ!”

El 4 de julio, vamos a celebrar el Día de la Independencia. Además de las celebraciones entre amigos y familiares, es un día para reflexionar sobre la libertad que hemos conseguido y la responsabilidad que tenemos a la que nos llamamos. No olvidemos el coraje y sacrificio de los patriotas que arriesgaron mucho por un ideal y un sueño en la Guerra de la Independencia. La victoria de la Guerra de la Independencia y la consecuente ruptura con Inglaterra fueron solo los primeros pasos que nos llevaron a ser una nación, con su constitución que define los poderes del estado y la división de dichos poderes. Hemos tomado prestado mucho de nuestra Madre Patria, pero también nos diferenciamos de manera muy importante. Sin monarquía o parlamento, los arquitectos de nuestra nación pusieron mucha ilusión y responsabilidad en el “hombre común” y en una visión de una verdadera democracia. La democracia representativa tiene un optimismo interno de que los seres humanos son libres, responsables y capaces de auto-gobierno. La “libertad de” Inglaterra fue entendida como una “libertad para” la creación de una nueva forma de gobierno y el uso del poder y la autoridad para el bien común.

Hoy en día sigue siendo muy importante que sigamos comprometidos con los objetivos y propósitos fundacionales de nuestra nación. Hemos obtenido una “libertad de” muchos tipos de tiranos y sus abusos, pero no nos hemos liberado del racismo, la pobreza, la hostilidad hacia los inmigrantes y los abusos contra la vida, tales como la guerra, el aborto, la pena de muerte. Tampoco hemos encontrado nuestro lugar como líderes del mundo libre, sin una dependencia en la guerra y la violencia. Todavía tenemos mucho trabajo por hacer para poder usar nuestra “libertad para” de la mejor manera. A medida que continuamos luchando con la recesión, los temores y la incertidumbre económica, se nos recuerda que incluso un país tan poderoso como los Estados Unidos no puede controlar unilateralmente el destino de un mundo interdependiente.

Por tanto como personas de fe y miembros de la Alianza, oramos para que Dios nos bendiga con la sabiduría y la gracia, el coraje y la perseverancia para que el gobierno respete nuestros derechos inherentes, especialmente nuestro derecho a la libertad religiosa. Nos esforzamos por crear un bien común y un conjunto de reglas sociales que no sean hostiles a la fe religiosa y a su lugar en la vida nacional. La Carta de Derechos no tenía intención de construir muros entre la fe y la democracia, sino de respetar la importancia y los ámbitos de la actividad de ambos.

Recuerde que la enseñanza de Jesús: “Dad al César lo que es del César y a Dios lo que es de Dios”. Y el 4 de julio: “No ha muerto, sino que duerme. «Estaba muerta para los hombres, que no podían despertarla; para Dios, dormía, porque su alma vivía sometida al poder divino, y la carne descansaba para la resurrección.»
