How often do our lives seem like that of Job in today’s first reading? We all know the experience of that night dragging on and experiencing that “restlessness until the dawn,” while trying to cope with a death of a loved one, an illness in the family or any other of countless situations that we find ourselves in. In these times of hardship and pain we very frequently turn our minds to God in prayer and petition as well we should. Many that I have talked to say that it was just in those moments of despair that they had a conversion experience or profound encounter with God. It may be that when we are hurting the most we tend to turn to that power which we believe to be the only hope for us to move on in our lives and the response and consolation from God is there. It says in today’s psalm, “He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds,” and how we need our emotional and spiritual wounds tended to. There is a story of a woman who experienced this type of encounter with God at one of the lowest points in her life when she experienced several tragedies in a short period of time. Her life was turned around in her spiritual life and she became closer to God than she ever had been in her life. She asked her priest how this could happen during such a time even when she was not seeking anything from God. The priest simply responded, “Sometimes our hardened hearts have to be broken to allow God to enter.”

WORD FROM OUR BISHOP
Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Thank you for all of your prayers, Masses, support and assistance. They have meant a great deal to me and I am deeply grateful. I had a seven hour surgery and am doing quite well. Again, thank you so much! See you soon and know of my prayers.

God bless all of you!!

Our celebration of family faith and fun

This weekend we have our annual Family Faith and Fun Day. It is an opportunity for us to pay attention to the basic unit of society and church, the family, the “Domestic Church”, the “Church of the Home”. We all were born into and grew up within a family. Our basic sense of personal security and identity was shaped within our family of origin. We learned what it meant to be a human being, how to share, forgive, support and love unselfishly. We also learned the important lessons of working together to make good things happen and to accept and learn even from failure. The bonds of family give us nurturance, security and a sense of belonging. From the religious perspective, family is the first place that we learn the most important truth that we are created and loved by God and have a mission and purpose in this world. Family faith, practiced regularly, becomes a good habit that will support us through life’s triumphs and tragedies.

I would like to congratulate all of the families of Saint Joan of Arc for the great work you do to live and pass on our faith. I want, also, to acknowledge the pressures, tensions and difficulties that are also a part of family life. Concerns of finances, job security, health, marital happiness, issues of maturity and aging, child-rearing stresses etc. all require strength and courage. It is with faith, however, that they are manageable and may even be the source of development in character and virtue. It is not easy to be a counter cultural family of faith that believes in the existence of non-material reality and the existence of a loving God. Christian life today has an element of struggle and disconnect with a culture that is non-believing, secularized, and materialistic. But, we also have to celebrate the vitality and endurance of the “Family of Faith” of today and so we come together to support one another and to have fun together.

Our “Celebration of Faith and Fun” brings us together for a morning and early afternoon in order to have fun and enjoy God’s great gift of “Play”. We know that without play we tire, lose enthusiasm, creativity and a zest for living. Play gets us out of the world of work, routine, the predictable and the boring. When we play we live in a different world of spontaneity, creativity, freedom and the time out of time that we call “playtime”.

As adults we can participate directly and vicariously in the events of “Family, Faith and Fun Day”. But most of all, we are filled with joy as we see our children with painted faces, engrossed in “musical chairs” or the “ring toss” or a slide down the Titanic beached on our athletic field. Family Faith and Fun come together and perfectly complement one another on February 7 in Boca Raton, Florida. Amen, Alleluia!

-Msgr. Michael D. McGraw

29th Annual Interfaith Dialogue Weekend
Sitting Down at the Table of Friendship

Join us for the annual sharing of faith and knowledge of one another's traditions and ideas

February 19 – 22, 2015

Don’t miss sharing this St. Joan of Arc/Temple Beth El tradition, in its 29th year anniversary!

Our Guest Speaker this year is Fr. Bill Burton, O.F.M.
Fr. Burton is a Franciscan priest who is an expert on the Bible. He is best known for his website, Biblicist.com and Biblicist DVD series which bring the scriptures to life. Doctorate (STD) in Biblical Theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome and Licentiate in Sacred Scripture (SSL) from the Pontifical Biblical Institute, also in Rome. MED in Higher Education from Loyola University in Chicago.

Our 29th annual Interfaith Weekend with Temple Beth El will celebrate how the simple act of sharing a meal is much more than just eating together, but transmits values, principles, and ideals and can be a sacramental act.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20
All are invited to a Shabbat service at Temple Beth El at 6:00pm.
7:30pm Spaghetti Dinner at Temple Beth El. $15.00 Adult & $10 child. RSVP online at www.tbeboca.org

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 22
All are invited to attend the 12:15pm Mass at St. Joan of Arc followed by a reception in Our Lady of Mercy Center. Clergy and choirs from each congregation will participate in the service and Liturgy.
Koinonia Parish Retreat 2015
This is a spiritually uplifting weekend experience that takes place right here in our parish, while you go home to sleep in the comfort of your own home.

REGISTER NOW February 27, 28 & March 1
Please fill out registration form and return to the church office at: St Joan of Arc, 370 SW 3rd Street, Boca Raton, FL 33432.
Spaces are limited to the first 36 persons. Retreat fee of $85.00 per person includes all three days.
No one will be denied for the lack of funds.

Holiness: A Journey Into Love
To be human is to be holy. We tend to forget, amid all the supernatural happenings found in the Sacred Scripture, that the warmth of human love, the gift of faith, and the blessing of hope are the constantly recurring graces that open our hearts to one another and allow us to share God’s goodness. When, on the evening before his death, Jesus came together with his disciples around the table, he shared the bread and the cup as a sign of friendship and all gathered received love, friendship, and community. The disciples learned that God wants to come close to us, and we are to be holy.

All are invited to participate in our Lenten Mission

Fr. Krill will be preaching at all Masses on the weekend of February 21 and 22.
Lenten talks at 8:45am and Mission at 7:00pm

DON’T MISS THIS MISSION OF SPIRITUAL RENEWAL!
During Catholic Schools Week, St. Joan of Arc honors the families who give of their time to assist the school by announcing the Volunteers of the Year. On Monday, January 26, Mrs. Patricia Auger was recognized as the Grandparent of the Year for her daily help in the school’s lunch program. Mrs. Auger has volunteered almost every single day since her grandson, William Lamphear in 6A, came to St. Joan of Arc in first grade. This comes out to almost 1,000 days of volunteering, an amazing commitment!

On Wednesday, at the Catholic Schools Week liturgy, Mr. Hugo Nunez and Mrs. Neisy Nunez were honored as the Volunteers of the Year, and their list of service is extensive: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Dad’s Club, the Scout float at the Boca Raton Holiday Parade, Cheerleading Coach, Hispanic Ministry, the Blessing of the Nativity at Sanborn Square, the Santa Ana Circle, and field trips and work as homeroom parents.

Then on Thursday, the second Volunteer of the Year award was given to Mr. George Barlow. Since Mr. Barlow has been a soccer coach for the JV and Varsity boys soccer teams for ten years, it was fitting that he received his award as part of the school’s Field Day program. He has also been instrumental in organizing the Dad’s Club, their dinners, Breakfast for students, and their support and underwriting of the purchase of athletic team uniforms and the school garden. Mr. Barlow has also served as a church lector, volunteered with the Care Ministry, and facilitated the involvement of St. Joan students with Our Father’s House, a local soup kitchen.

We congratulate all of our volunteers, especially Mrs. Auger, Mr. Nunez, Mrs. Nunez, and Mr. Barlow, and thank everyone who helps our school and parish with the many fun and helpful events we have throughout the school year.

St. Joan of Arc Catholic School recognized some of its top students from the Eighth Grade during a special induction ceremony for the new members of the National Junior Honor Society at the Catholic Schools Week liturgy on Wednesday, January 28. Inducted into the Society were: Courtney Baer, Elisa Carrillo, Taylor-Rose Connors, Chloe Dohler, Davis Elordi, Aliya Himawan, and Eve Williams. Students were chosen by the school’s NJHS Committee based upon five criteria: scholarship, leadership, service, character, and citizenship.

These are students who have shown by their grades, behavior, and the living out of their Catholic faith that they are deserve to be known as the role models for their classmates at St. Joan of Arc.

These students are to be congratulated for this achievement and for their continued dedication to their studies and to their Catholic faith.
WHAT’S BEEN HAPPENING AT SAINT JOAN OF ARC?
OUR SOCIAL LIFE

In addition to being a spiritual community, Saint Joan of Arc is a community that knows how to have FUN! Each year there are many opportunities for our community to celebrate friendships, common interests, special events and charitable gatherings that bond us with one another and are really enjoyable. All of these together express the deep human need that we have to belong and to play. Without the humanizing effects of play, we could really become a dull or boring community that has lost its enthusiasm for life. Too much work and not enough play, has a deadening effect that isn’t Spirit filled, hopeful or life enriching. Our parish is a unique place where fun, community, spirituality and ministry all come together in a joy filled and Christ centered community.

At Saint Joan of Arc many of the social activities like the dances, parties, special dinners (Fish Fry), style shows, are designed and organized by parish organizations like: Dad’s Club, Knights of Columbus, Columbiettes, Council of Catholic Women, LIGHT (Young Adults), Alleluia Club. They are always a great time! Many other social activities are the fruit of the imagination and energy of our different ministries: Mommy and Me (Moms together with their babies and young children), Family parties (Pumpkin Carving, Breakfast with Santa, Easter Egg Hunt), EDGE parties, Youth Group fun times, Men’s Spirituality Group (Caroling and Visitation of Nursing Homes) just to name a few. Many spiritual/social activities also provide wonderful experiences of community and faith sharing: Our Lady of Guadalupe Festival, Our Lady of Caridad Festival, Family Faith and Fun Day, International Festival Celebration (smorgasbord celebrating our parish’s wonderful diversity), International Mission of Friendship Annual Spaghetti Dinner supporting our Mission partners (Saturday before Palm Sunday).

Every year, in addition, our parish sponsors our Annual Appreciation Dinner (for all involved in volunteerism, March 7), our Annual Gala Auction (To support Church and School), our Annual Parish Mission (Growing in Faith together) and our Koinonia Parish Retreat (a powerful spiritual and community experience). If you are a little overwhelmed by the possibilities for social and community interaction and fun, please stop and rest for a while after the Sunday 10:45 Mass for coffee and donuts (Coffee and Donut Ministry©) or try a quiet cup of coffee and biscotti outside of the Gift Shop in our “Holy Cafe”. Remember that true “faith in action” involves the whole person: body, mind and spirit. Here at Saint Joan of Arc that is the vision that we seek to make a reality together.
Aaron John Snyder and Sarah Elizabeth Dickson

Aaron was welcomed in to our Catholic Faith on 12/02/2012 at Our Lady of Hope in Port Orange, FL.
Sarah was baptized on 3/18/1990 in St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church.
Aaron and Sarah were united in Marriage here in St. Joan of Arc on 06/22/2013.
One year later, their desire for service and their strong faith led them to begin a much needed ministry here at St. Joan of Arc. As Young Catholic Adults they realized that in order to grow in their faith and give support to each other the Young Adult Ministries needed to be rekindled. Our “Light Ministry” now has many members. They meet every Monday at “the Ark House” and the Ministry continues to strengthen every day. Aaron and Sarah’s faith is visible to those whom they meet. Their love is contagious and their service has started to play a vital role in our Parish. This is just the beginning of a life of ministry and service for two wonderful young adults whose married life began here at St. Joan of Arc.
WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK OUR SPONSORS FOR THEIR SUPPORT IN KEEPING THIS EVENT AFFORDABLE!

SUNDAY SESSION FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: 9:00 A.M. TO 10:15 A.M.
WEDNESDAY SESSION FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: 4:45 P.M. TO 6:00 P.M.

Religious Education is Halfway Through
It’s truly amazing how times flies. It feels it was only yesterday we welcomed the smiling, excited faces of our Religious Education Students back in September. Now we only have three more months to go!

Things are really picking up speed in these last three months, We just had Family Faith Fun Day and Lent is just behind it, parent meetings and preparations for First Communion are knocking at the calendar door. Yes, it’s going to be a pretty hectic ride from now “till May, but I assure you it will be a fun and worthwhile one.

I ask the parents to dust off your Religious Education Calendar booklet to catch up on upcoming dates. Here is a preview

Feb. 18 - ASH WEDNESDAY: the students in Wednesday Session will go to Ash Wednesday Mass at 5:00p.m. Students of the Sunday session are also invited to come. And as usual Parents are VERY welcome.

Feb. 25 and March 1 - Students in grades 3 to 8 of both Sunday and Wednesday Sessions will have the opportunity of going to Confession to get ready for the Lenten Season. Because of Spring Break and Holy Week special days we will have a long break in Religious Ed. Check your calendar for those dates.

March 7 – First Communion Retreat for the second graders preparing for First Communion.
March 28 - First Reconciliation Day.

As you see it will be busy these next couple of months. Parents, please make note of the important dates in your calendars. While I understand life is busy for families today I assure you these dates are necessary and will help the whole family in growing in love of God and faith.

I also want to remind parents that as First Communion day gets closer we will need to test the children in their knowledge of the basic prayers and catechism topics. Please, pray with your children at home. It will be the best way for them to learn their prayers.

Lastly, I would like to welcome some late registrations we’ve had lately, several families have moved to our area and are registering their children in the religious education program. That is GREAT news.

I do want to remind everyone though that at this point of time we cannot accept any new students in the Sacramental program. New students are more than welcome in our regular catechism classes.

AN INVITATION TO WEDNESDAY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PARENTS

Parents of students in the Wednesday Session of Religious Education are invited to come and reflect on your faith with Sr. Ellen Murphy, RSM. While your children are in religion classes, come and share with other parents. There will be prayer, faith discussions, videos, Bible study and much more.

Don’t miss it!

When you consider your estate plans, remember your spiritual family

Truly your parish has been a part of your faith development, a member of your family. Consider becoming a member of The Angel Society as a way of guaranteeing the health of your spiritual family long into the future. Please consider a bequest as part of your plans to benefit your parish. Through your estate, your membership in our extended community of faith will continue in perpetuity.

Your attorney, or financial advisor can advise you on the tax benefits and other considerations you will want to think about as you consider your estate plans. A number of valuable and attractive benefits will accompany your membership. These include special masses and mailings designed especially for Society members.

For more information, please contact Wendy Horton at 561-952-2838.

Febrero 2015

Para leer y meditar cada día de la semana

Lunes 9: San Marcos 6, 53-56:
Consecuencias en la vida de un cristiano. No vivimos en soledad. ¿Cómo contribuimos al bien común?

Martes 10: San Marcos 7, 1-13:
El cuarto mandamiento. Amor con obras a los padres. ¿Qué significa honor a los padres? El amor a los hijos, como lo manifestamos?

Miércoles 11: San Marcos 6, 1-6:
Trabajar bien. La Santificación del trabajo.

Jueves 12: San Marcos 7, 24-30:
Omisión humilde y perseverante. En la oración debemos pedir gracias sobrenaturales, y también bienes y ayudas materiales en la medida en que sean útiles a la salvación propia o del próximo. Pedir para los demás. El Rosario, «arma poderosa».

Viernes 13: San Marcos 7, 31-37:
Todo lo hizo bien Jesús es nuestro Modelo, realizó su trabajo en Nazaret con perfección humana. Nosotros también debemos terminar con perfección el trabajo y cuidar de las cosas pequeñas en nuestro quehacer profesional.

Alas 6:30 nuestra Misa de vigilia del domingo 15 de febrero. VI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Ciclo B San Marcos 1,40-45: La Lepra del Pecado.

Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Ciclo B

San Marcos 1,29-39: Difundir la verdad

Al encontrarlo Simón y sus compañeros le dijeron: "Todo el mundo te busca..."

El mundo tiene hambre y sed de Dios. Nuestros amigos y conocidos, incluso los más alejados, también tienen necesidad y deseos de Dios, aunque muchas veces no lo manifiesten. Y, sobre todo, el Señor los busca a ellos. Pidamos a la Santísima Virgen el afán apostólico que tuvieron los Apóstoles y los primeros cristianos para llevar a Jesús a todos.

"Como va la familia, así va el mundo."
