2024 DIOCESAN SERVICES APPEAL

GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD Matthew 6:11

ONE OF THE PILLARS OF FAITH WE EMPHASIZE IN LENT IS ALMSGIVING

Giving makes us active participants in the mission of the Church. It makes us a part of something larger, more majestic, and holier than ourselves. (2Cor 8:3-4) 1. Giving alms is an act of praise and worship of our God. It is an expression of gratitude for all the blessings God gives to us.

Your love and generosity is making possible to continue vital programs and ministries serving those in need throughout the Diocese of Palm Beach.

As you can see in our Goal Chart (bottom left page), we as a Parish are steadily moving forward to reach our 2024 Diocesan Services Appeal goal. We ask that during this Lent we as disciples, should strive to be like Him (Mt 10:25). When our giving is sacrificial—a bit uncomfortable and for the benefit of others—then in our small-scale way we approach the sacrificial self-giving of Jesus on the cross. Our giving becomes our preaching of the Gospel.

Your monetary support is greatly appreciated as well as many other ways of planned giving shown on this page. If you plan to give with any of these options, please call 561-775-9590 and specify that your planned giving is for the 2024 Diocesan Services Appeal and that your designated parish is St. Joan of Arc.

Thank you for your generosity!

7 Ways to make a Planned Gift to the Diocese of Palm Beach

1

Stock/Securities - By giving a gift of appreciated securities, you can avoid paying capital gains on the stock or security, receive a charitable gift deduction on your tax return and the diocese, parish or diocesan ministry receives the full value of your security.

2

Matching Gifts - Many companies provide matching gifts for their employees as a benefit of their employment. Matching gifts are an excellent way to double and sometimes triple the impact of your personal donation.

3

Endowments - An endowment is a permanent fund that holds its principal in perpetuity and is invested for the benefit of a particular purpose. By contributing money to an endowment, you create a source of income for the beneficiary and carry on your legacy of giving for generations to come.

4

Taxable IRA - Donors above 70.5 years of age may give a gift from their IRA (limited to $105,000 per year per individual, which will be indexed for inflation starting in 2024). This counts towards your required minimum distribution (RMD) and is a way to avoid taxable income.

5

Wills - To leave a gift in your will, simply share this sentence with your attorney or financial planner: "I bequeath $_____ or _____% of my estate to The Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito, D.D., J.C.L., as Bishop of the Diocese of Palm Beach, his successors in Office, a corporation sole. I wish to designate the funds to (Your Parish, Ministry, or the Diocesan Services Appeal)."

6

Charitable Gift Annuity - A charitable gift annuity is when you give a sum of money, in this case to the Diocese of Palm Beach (minimum of $25,000 for the Diocese of Palm Beach and donor must be 65 years or older), and they pay you a guaranteed quarterly annuity payments for the rest of your life.

7

Life Insurance - Name the Diocese of Palm Beach as the beneficiary of your life insurance policy. Simply contact your policy holder and ask for a Change of Beneficiary form.

THE WISDOM OF THE GREAT ASCETICS OFFER HELPFUL
LENTEN ADVICE: By Daniel Esparza for Aleteia

As Lent goes by, the wisdom of the great ascetics (those who dedicated their lives to true self-discipline) can offer valuable guidance. St. Augustine, a pillar of the early Church, constantly talked about food in a metaphorical sense. For example, he refers to memory as “the stomach of the soul.” He reminds us that fasting is not just about food but about what goes “inside” of us — our thoughts, our memories, our innermost self. The Desert Fathers and Mothers, early Christian hermits who lived lives of austerity, advise, “Let no day pass without doing some work for God.” St. Seraphim of Sarov, a revered Russian saint, gives the season a distinctive twist. He reminds us of the joy at the heart of Lent. He said, “Acquire the spirit of peace, and thousands will be saved around you.” When we meet someone who has devoted him or herself to God, we can certainly feel a distinctive something – a special kind of joy.

EL SERVICIO DE LOS MINISTROS EXTRAORDINARIOS DE LA SAGRADA COMUNION Y SUS CUALIDADES:

El Ministro Extraordinario debe ser, un Catolico bautizado en buena relacion con la Iglesia.

El Ministro debe ser una persona de Fe, que cree en Dios, sigue a Cristo y confia en el Espiritu Santo.

El Ministro debe tener un amor genuino por la Santa Eucaristia. Que sintió el llamado de Dios y decidió seguir al Señor para poder compartir la alegria de la Sagrada Comunión con todos los fieles que participan en ella. El Ministro debe ser una persona que ama El Cuerpo de Cristo en todas sus formas y que busca servir al pueblo de Dios en sus momentos de necesidad .

Lo que los Catolicos creemos sobre la Santa Eucaristía está en el corazon de nuestra Fe.

Recordando lo que nos dice Jesus "Que reunió a sus Discípulos la noche antes de morir y compartió con Ellos en su ultima cena" tomó el pan, lo bendijo, lo partio y lo dió a sus Discípulos diciendo "Este es mi Cuerpo" luego compartió el Cáliz y dijo "Este es el Cáliz de mi Sangre", todos comieron y Jesus les mando diciendo "Hagan esto en conmemoración Mia".

Creemos que la intencion de Jesus es que hagamos lo que El hizo. Asi nos reunimos a comer y beber un alimento sagrado, su Cuerpo y su Sangre.

Para nosotros la Santa Misa es a la vez Cena y Sacrificio. Nos sentamos a la mesa con Jesus, y comemos con El en su ultima cena, y tambien nos unimos al Sacerdote para alabanza y gloria a Dios. Llamamos a esta celebración "Eucaristia", palabra que significa "Acción de Gracias", o "Misa" palabra que significa que somos invitados a anunciar la buena nueva de salvación.

Nosotros como Ministros Extraordinarios de la Sagrada Eucaristia nos sentimos dichosos y bendecidos de haber sido escogidos por el Señor, y poder colaborar con un granito de arena en la misión de la Santa Iglesia, ya que todos los Catolicos somos misioneros de su palabra.
