Spiritual Direction at St. Joan of Arc

Fr. Nestor Rodriguez is pleased to announce that Cindy Kase will be providing Spiritual Direction for St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church

Cindy holds an M.A. in Catholic Pastoral Theology, a Certificate in Spiritual Direction, and a Certificate in Lay Ministry and is a member of Spiritual Directors International. She is known to many parishioners through Koinonia, Women of Grace, CCW, and the CCD Parents Group. Spiritual Direction can help individuals deepen their relationship with God, grow in self-awareness, discern vocational or life decisions, and integrate faith more fully into everyday experience, including dealing with spiritual dryness, confusion, difficulty with prayer, or uncertainty in discerning God's will. Not therapy or counseling, Spiritual Direction can be especially suited for people who feel they don't have everything figured out but desire a more intentional and grounded spiritual life.

Direction will be offered on the St. Joan campus, with daytime and evening appointments available. Cindy may be reached at (561) 392-0007 ext. 3012 or kase_cindy@stjoan.org

Holding a B.S. and M.E. in Chemical Engineering and having served as a reserve engineering officer, she also brings a distinguished professional background in the energy markets, specializing in oil and gas forecasting, quantitative trading, and risk analysis.

We congratulate Cindy and look forward to the blessings this ministry will bring.

A day of reflection and spiritual renewal

AIM welcomes individuals with physical disabilities—and those facing mobility issues due to aging—to a free, one-day retreat to invigorate their faith. Each participant is paired with a buddy to assist them during the day, and a nurse will be present. (AIM also invites parishioners who want to learn about its ministry.)

Come hear Father Kevin McQuone from St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary. After his inspiring talks, participants will have the opportunity to share their thoughts and feelings with others at their table—or just take in what others have to say.

The day includes Mass at Mercy Center.
Lunch and light breakfast items will be provided.
Please reserve your space (there is no charge). You will be inspired.

Tercer domingo en tiempo ordinario

Primera Lectura: Isaías 8:23-9:3

Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 1:10-13,17

Evangelio: Mateo 4:12-23

Desde los primeros momentos de su vida pública, Jesús se instaló en Cafarnaún, Era un lugar lleno de actividad en donde confluían judíos y paganos, gentes de toda procedencia. Allí, en la "Galilea de los gentiles", se comenzaba a ver "una gran luz", ya que Jesús venía a traer la salvación a todos. En este pasaje del Evangelio, en el que Mateo nos presenta los primeros pasos del Maestro, se sintetizan tres rasgos fundamentales de su actividad.

Primero, se presenta un resumen del contenido esencial de su predicación: "Convertíos, porque está al llegar el Reino de los Cielos". La conversión supone un cambio de orientación. Implica un apartamiento del pecado para mirar derechamente hacia la meta a la que todos estamos llamados, que es la bienaventuranza en el reino de los Cielos. Cuando se escucha a Jesús, algo comienza a cambiar en la propia vida. Así lo experimentaron Pedro y Andrés, Santiago y Juan.

En segundo lugar, con la invitación a su seguimiento de quienes serían sus primeros discípulos, pone en marcha a su Iglesia, apoyada en unos hombres sencillos y corrientes a los que constituiría en Apóstoles. De ellos y de sus sucesores se servirá para actualizar continuamente la llamada universal a la conversión y a la penitencia que abre camino al Reino de los Cielos.

Aquellos hombres estaban afanados en su faena diaria, eran pescadores, cuando Jesús les abrió unos horizontes insospechados y ellos lo siguieron con prontitud. Hasta ahora su trabajo consistía en echar las redes, lavarlas, arreglarlas para mantenerlas siempre a punto, vender el pescado... Pero el Señor les hace ver que, sin dejar su profesión, ahora les espera otra pesca. Su gran aventura comenzó con un sencillo encuentro, aparentemente casual. Desde el momento en que se abrieron a Jesús y fueron generosos para cambiar de rutinas y emprender su seguimiento, también ellos comenzaron a tener un conocimiento directo del Maestro. No los estaba llamando a ser meros anunciadores de una doctrina, sino amigos íntimos y testigos de su persona. Con ese anzuelo, en adelante serían "pescadores de hombres" (v. 19).

En tercer lugar, Mateo deja claro que Jesús es algo más que un gran maestro, ya que va "curando toda enfermedad y dolencia del pueblo" (v. 23). Es redentor del hombre en todas las dimensiones de su vida, puesto que salva a la vez que enseña. "El señorío de Dios se manifiesta entonces -comentaba Benedicto XVI- en la curación integral del hombre. De este modo Jesús quiere revelar el rostro del verdadero Dios, el Dios cercano, lleno de misericordia hacia todo ser humano; el Dios que nos da la vida en abundancia, su misma vida" [ ].
