Dear St. Joan of Arc Mothers,

On this Mother's Day, I offer my heartfelt gratitude for each of you who share your lives, your love, and your faith so generously. In your daily care, in the quiet sacrifices no one sees, and in the guidance you give your children, you reflect something truly sacred. You help shape not only their character, but their souls.

Thank you for the tenderness you show, for the patience you practice, and for the way you lead your families closer to Christ. Your witness of faith within the home is a gift to our parish and to our school. It is through you that many first come to know the love of God.

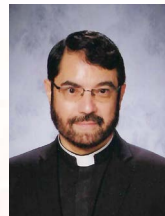

We look to the Blessed Virgin Mary as our model, whose trust, humility, and devotion continue to inspire the Church. In her example, we see the beauty of a mother's heart given fully to God.

Be assured of my prayers for you today and always. May the Lord bless you with strength, peace, and joy, and may you feel deeply appreciated for the love you give so freely.

With gratitude and prayers,

Rev. Nestor Rodriguez

Very Rev. Nestor Rodriguez, V.F.

Almighty and eternal God, who, with the help of the Holy Spirit, prepared the body and soul of Mary, the Virgin Mother, to be a worthy dwelling place for your Son; as we joyfully remember her, deliver us through her intercession from present evils and from eternal death. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. Don Bosco

THE SANCTUARY YOUTH SERIES

The Sanctuary Youth Series | Trailer

The Sanctuary Youth Series is centered on the pressing questions that young people are asking about faith and mental health. It provides space to engage these questions and start important conversations in youth ministries and church communities. Drawing on insights from mental health professionals, theologians, and evidence-based research, this educational and interactive course is designed to reduce stigma, increase awareness, and prepare students for a faith journey that includes seasons of flourishing and languishing.
